DON'T FORGET THE FOLK FESTIVAL TUESDAY, MARCH 26, 1985

Don't forget to participate in the Shelton State Folk Festival...It is the college's contribution towards Heritage Week in Tuscaloosa. DRESS: Faculty, students, and staff are encouraged to "dress up" in old fashioned duds. However, blue jeans are acceptable for the day.

11:00 a.m.: "Lifestyles - The Way We Were," roundtable discussion, music room, Arthur Howington will lead a panel discussion of longtime Tuscaloosans as they recall their experiences of years ago.

12:30 p.m.: Barbeque Lunch....The barbeque is furnished compliments of Jon Lee, karate instructor. Any faculty, staff, or administrator is invited to attend. Anyone attending must bring a dish for the luncheon. For questions, contact Humphrey Lee.

2:00 p.m.: "Traditional Pottery Making in Alabama," E. Hank Willett, III. Regional representative National Endowment for the Arts, will speak in the auditorium. Mr. Willett is well known and has been very active in the development of folk arts in the state.

UNIVERSITY FACULTY MEMBER TO BE AT SHELTON

Dr. Sang-Hie Lee will perform and lecture on the Sonata Number 1 in E-Flat Major by Haydn as part of Shelton's concert series this spring. Dr. Lee will perform at 12:30 p.m. on Monday, March 25, in the music room of the college.

Dr. Lee is a member of the faculty of the University of Alabama and received her Master of Music degree in 1966 from American Conservatory of Music in Chicago and Doctorate of Music Arts in 1977 from the University of Georgia.

She has performed with the Shreveport Symphony Orchestra and has presented recitals in the United States, Korea, Canada, and Italy. Dr. Lee is currently involved in developing a series of lecture recital programs and is engaged in biomechanical research of piano playing.

FOUNDATION NOTES.....

The Shelton State Foundation now has pledges of almost $55,000.00 from college personnel. Over 40% of the employees have already participated in the program. If you have not made your commitment, there is still time. Shelton State is setting the pace for the two-year system.

A special thanks to Syscon Computers who have donated a $200.00 softwar package to the junior college. We appreciate our community support.

MONTEVALLO OFFERS SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The University of Montevallo offers the Um Presidential Leadership Scholarship Program for qualified students at two-year colleges in Alabama. The students who are selected display notable leadership qualities while maintaining high academic proficiency.

If you are interested in learning more about these scholarships, contact the office of Dr. Humphrey Lee, dean of students.

BREWER STATE INSTRUCTOR TO EXHIBIT AT SHELTON

Annabel Walker, instructor of art for Brewer State Junior College in Fayette, will exhibit a group of paintings at the library of Shelton State Junior College, March 20 - April 10.

Ms Walker, an art therapist, holds MFA and BFA degrees from the University of Alabama and currently teaches a variety of art courses at Brewer. She is a member of the Alabama Art League and has exhibited throughout Alabama, including the Masters Alumni Exhibition at the University of Alabama in 1981.

In addition to Ms. Walker's exhibition, a group of ceramics by students of the college will be featured as part of Folk Festival activities, Marh 25-29.

BUCCANEER NEWS FROM THE SOFTBALL AND BASEBALL TEAMS

After coming back from a week's tournament in Florida during spring holidays, the Buccaneer baseball team will meet Marion Institute, their second cnoference game of the season, at Marion on Tuesday, March 26. On Wednesday they will play Selma at noon at the VA Hospital.

The women's softball team will play Gadsden State at Tuscaloosa on Monday, March 25, at 3:00 p.m. at Bowers Park. On Wednesday, they go on the road for two games with Wallace State in Hanceville and Troy State at Troy on Thursday. The women will play in the Gulf Coast Tournament in Panama City, Florida, next week-end.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The next short course to be offered by the Alabama State Fire College and Technical Assistance Program will be April 9 - 12 and will be located at the Fire College in Tuscaloosa. The school will be the Advanced Pump Operator School.

Students attending the school will have the opportunity to test their skills on an electronic pump simulator before going on the drill field to operate actual fire pumps. This will provide realistic situations without the usual noise and confusion of a fire ground.

TECHNICAL TALK

The new Emergency Medical training course will begin March 25. The class is still open to anyone who wishes to take the EMT course.

STORYTELLING WORKSHOP

Kathryn Tucker Windham will hold a storytelling workshop today, March 25, from 9:00 a.m. - 12 noon. If you are interested in attending, come by the auditorium.
